ULTRA TRAIL ANGKOR

SECURED BY THE ROYAL POLICE AND THE ROYAL GENDARMERIE, THE UTA RECEIVES SUPPORT FROM THE MINISTER OF TOURISM, THE NATIONAL TOURISM OFFICE, APSARA, AND THE CNOC (CAMBODIAN NATIONAL OLYMPIC COMMITTEE).

THE UTA AIMS TO ENCOURAGE INTERACTIONS BETWEEN RUNNERS AND WALKERS, AS WELL AS WITH THE LOCAL POPULATION.

THE ULTRA TRAIL ANGKOR, ONE OF A KIND, ALLOWS ALL PARTICIPANTS TO TEST THEIR PHYSICAL ABILITIES WHILE KEEPING AN EYE OPEN AND ATTENTIVE TO THE HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL ASPECTS OF THE MOST PRESTIGIOUS TOURIST SITE ON THE PLANET.

THE TEAM

JEAN CLAUDE LE CORNEC

Founder of SDPO and Organizer of the Ultra Trail Angkor

Former Inspector at AIRBUS Helicopters, he first launched Les Foulées de la Soie in 1996, which, let's remember,
“WAS THE FIRST EVENT IN THE WORLD TO COMBINE SPORT AND CULTURE”

LINH TUAN LE

Associate Director of PHOENIX
Voyages and partner of SDPO

Linh Tuan utilizes his entire network to secure the necessary permits for the smooth running of the race at the Angkor archaeological site.

EDOUARD DANA

President of Editions RIVA

In this role, he creates photo reports that capture the entire Ultra-Trail Angkor, much to everyone's delight.

GRÉGOIRE PICHENOT

Race Director

This computer programmer, Director of PIROG Ingénierie, has joined the SDPO team in 2009. He designed and managed SDPO's first websites as well as the timing system for all events organized in Asia.

GERMAIN PICHENOT

Technical Director

A construction specialist, Germain has always been adept at managing teams where cohesion is a key factor for success.

PHILIPPE ARMENGAUD

Médical

A physiotherapist and osteopath for nearly 30 years in high-level sports (athletics, rugby, squash, motorsports), and a rugby player (Castres Olympique, Blagnac SC).

"Not to forget the rest of the staff, who work tirelessly behind the scenes to handle a multitude of essential tasks and ensure the smooth running of the Ultra Trail Angkor."

HUMANITARIAN MISSION

SDPO is also committed to solidarity and contributes...

...in each country crossed to the well-being of the local populations.

3 TO 4 NGOs RECEIVE DONATIONS EACH YEAR SINCE THE FIRST EDITION OF THE ULTRA-TRAIL ANGKOR.

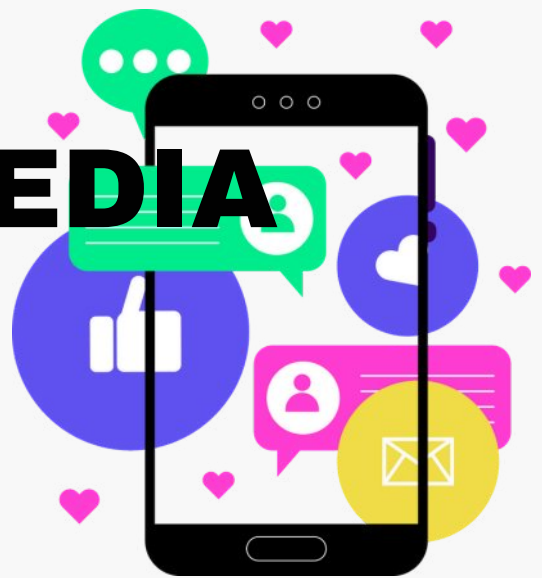

“The race management takes pride in supporting causes that are close to their hearts, showing that for them, this adventure goes far beyond mere competition.”
